EXPERIENCE

With over 15 years of client relations experience, an eye for staging and remodeling and a strong work ethic, I have been very successful in helping my clients realize their real estate dreams. Whether buying or selling, I provide my clients with outstanding service and exceed their expectations from beginning to end. Through creative marketing, sharp negotiating skills and warm sense of humor, I strive to make the transaction as easy as possible for all involved.

PROFESSIONAL PHILOSOPHY & BACKGROUND

As your Real Estate agent, I will use honest and responsive communication, professional consultation, and meticulous follow-through so that your real estate transaction is as effortless as possible.

As a fourth generation resident of the San Francisco Peninsula and the son of a contractor, I spent most of life on the Peninsula and around the housing industry. After college, my career focused around high-tech companies where I held various management positions in software implementation, electronic commerce and direct marketing.

In addition to real estate, I am active in the community by volunteering for Fiesta Gardens Homes Association, Habitat for Humanity, Lucile Packard, Palo Alto Players, Woodside Community Theatre, Hillbarn Theatre & St. Robert's Church in San Bruno.
